

Shushan Bridge - NY-58-02

Shushan, NY - Washington County

Shushan Bridge

Shushan Portal

Bridge Statistics*Region: *Capital DistrictCounty: *WashingtonTown: *SalemLocality: *Jackson and SalemPosition - Lat: *N 43° 05.468'Lon: *W 73° 20.725'Bridge Carries: *MuseumBridge Crosses: *Battenkill RiverBridge Traffic: *PedestrianTruss Type: *Town Lattice TrussYear Built: *1860/Font>Builder: *Stevens BrothersLength: 161'-0"Structure Characteristics: *Spans: 2Width: 18'-4"World Guide No.: *32-58-02National Register of Historic Places*Date: March 8, 1978

Description

This two span Town Lattice truss has a total length of 161 feet. This bridge now functions as a Museum open on the weekends in the summer months. It is an historic bridge built in 1858.

Photography

No traffic makes it good for portal shots. Difficult access under bridge down steep embankment for elevation views.

Parking

Limited parking on village streets.

Additional Information / Web Links

Shushan Covered Bridge Museum

Truss / Arch

Town Lattice Truss

No photo available

